EXECUTIVE SEARCH AND CONSULTING

Thank you for your interest in Strain & Associates. Headquartered in Houston, Texas, we possess more than three decades of executive search experience. Strain & Associates has carved a niche serving financial institutions throughout the Southwest. While we are the Texas authority, our capabilities have no geographic boundaries.

Strain & Associates is a retained executive search and consulting firm with a special focus on:

- Commercial banks of all sizes
- Wealth management organizations
- Investment and brokerage firms
- Mortgage banks and insurance

We believe the limitations on growth for any great company are not markets, technology, competition, or products. It is one thing above all else: the ability to hire and retain the right people.

As a Strain & Associates client, we bring to your search:

- Our unique knowledge of the Texas market
- Access to our well-established talent network
- A proven search methodology and
- Strategic support for human capital planning

Our clients are consistently rewarded with a search experience done right the first time.

Whether you are seeking to add a key executive to your senior management team or considering the human capital implications of a merger or acquisition, we can help. For more than 30 years, Strain & Associates has been the trusted expert for many of the most successful institutions in Texas. Let us demonstrate what we can do for you.
