SERVICES

Executive Search

Whether your needs require one person, the "lift out" of an entire team of people, or the acquisition of an enterprise, we are able to assist.

Our knowledge of both industry and market trends is a valuable asset to our clients in determining their current needs and anticipating future requirements.

In addition, Strain & Associates provides:

- Current and accurate compensation data
- Comprehensive advice regarding employment contracts as well as non-compete and non-solicitation agreements

At the end of the day, we are measured by our results, results which have created long-term relationships, repeat business and a high level of trust.

Corporate Development

Typically, Strain & Associates can introduce institutions in a range from $100 million to $1 billion, where a possible merger or acquisition transaction could create a value-building proposition. We can provide support in ensuring the optimum integration of human capital between all parties.

We welcome an opportunity to discuss the "bigger picture" with you in order to understand your long term strategic plan.
